

GETTING TO PADOVA AND THE WINTER SCHOOL

The nearest airport to Padova is Venice - Marco Polo. However you can also fly to Treviso (Venice), Verona, Milan or Bologna (see winter school website for further information).

Getting to the Residences La Nave and Belzoni from Venice airport

There is a public bus service (SITA) from the airport which departs at 40 minutes past the hour from 7.40 until 21.40. (If you are going to arrive after 21.40 please let us know and we will find alternative arrangements)

The ticket costs 8 euros if bought in the Arrivals hall, or 10 euros if you pay on the bus.

Exit the Arrivals Hall and turn right. At the right stop you'll see a blue SITA sign.

Board the SITA bus to Padova and convalidate your ticket.

The journey is about one hour long.

You want the penultimate bus stop which is called Via Venezia 13, Università.

You should ask the bus driver to tell you when to get off.

If you miss the stop, don't worry the next stop is Padova station (see directions below).

Getting to the Residences La Nave and Belzoni from Padova station

It's about a 15-20 minute walk from the station to both residences, La Nave and Belzoni.

If you want to take a bus, you may have to wait a while as there aren't many buses on Sundays. You should buy a ticket at the ticket office outside the station, it costs 1.20 Euros, and you must convalidate it on the bus.

You can take bus n. 7, n. 9, n. 15, or n.42 towards IPPODROMO or STANGA.

To reach each Residence, you need to get off in Via Belzoni, if you are going the the Residence La Nave, ask the bus driver for via del Portello, which is just off via Belzoni, so it's a couple of minutes' walk from the stop.
